Advent is the season of waiting and expectation centered on the coming birth of Jesus Christ. In the aftermath of almost 20 months of hearing fear and hatred and falsehood as well as experiencing loss and pain and heartache, perhaps it is high time that we, the Church, lead our families and neighbors to seek the peace that passes all understanding from the Prince of Peace, who is The Way, The Truth, and The Life and who was born on Christmas Day. During this season of Advent, let's focus on the Only One who can give us life, hope, joy, and peace—Jesus Christ.
