Did you know?????

In August of 1886, during a meeting conducted by Rev. Wells (grandfather of Zack and Lee Murray and Mrs. Evelyn Cox) the first Baptist Church of Eden was organized. This meeting was held in a school house near where the old bank building later stood.

On May 5th, 1905, W. A. Ballard and his wife gave and deeded land to the church for a building, stipulating that it would belong to the church as long as a church building remained on the site. A building was erected during 1905 and 1906. It was dedicated in 1906.

In 1912, under the leadership of Rev. H. H. Stephens, wings were added to either side of the original church building as need arose for classrooms. This frame building contained a bell which now hangs from a low tower on the southwest corner of the grounds.

Church Workday

April 1st from 9 to 12

We have a few things that need to be done as preventive maintenance at the church. We also have a few things that need a little attention to have our building looking its best for Resurrection Sunday.
